LOOK TO THIS DAY
FOR IT IS LIFE
THE VERY LIFE OF LIFE

IN ITS BRIEF COURSE LIE ALL
THE REALITIES AND TRUTHS OF EXISTENCE
THE JOY OF GROWTH
THE SPLENDOR OF ACTION
THE GLORY OF POWER

FOR YESTERDAY IS BUT A MEMORY
AND TOMORROW IS ONLY A VISION

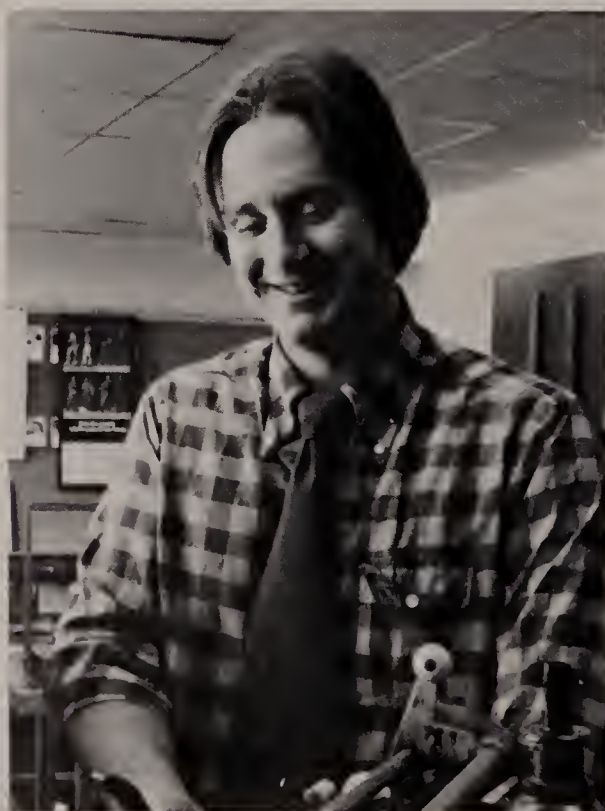

BUT TODAY WELL LIVED
 MAKES EVERY YESTERDAY A MEMORY OF HAPPINESS
 AND EVERY TOMORROW A VISION OF HOPE
 LOOK WELL, THEREFORE, TO THIS DAY!

IN DEDICATION TO . . .

MR. ERIC HAFFNER

most (people simply can't) won't(most parent people mustn't shouldn't) daren't
— e.e. cummings

The person to whom the yearbook is dedicated defies the image set forth in this poem. He has dared to be himself, to show us what he genuinely is. We've had the privilege to know and be influenced by someone whose humanity and honesty are overwhelming — a man whose determination to act according to his own beliefs will be an inspiration to us always.

It has been said that a man's greatness is determined in part by the impression he leaves on the lives of those who have known him. The effects this man has had on us are magnificent. He has assured us that — as individuals — our uniqueness is sacred. He has made us not only recognize our talents and potential, but also realize that to be happy we must use these to their utmost. He has taught us that to maintain an appreciation of living one must face problems with a smile and a readiness to laugh at oneself. After spending a short time with this man, one exits with greater self-confidence, a brighter outlook and an acknowledgement of his own personal importance. The class of 1976 expresses deep appreciation to Mr. Eric Haffner.

WITH DEEP APPRECIATION . . .

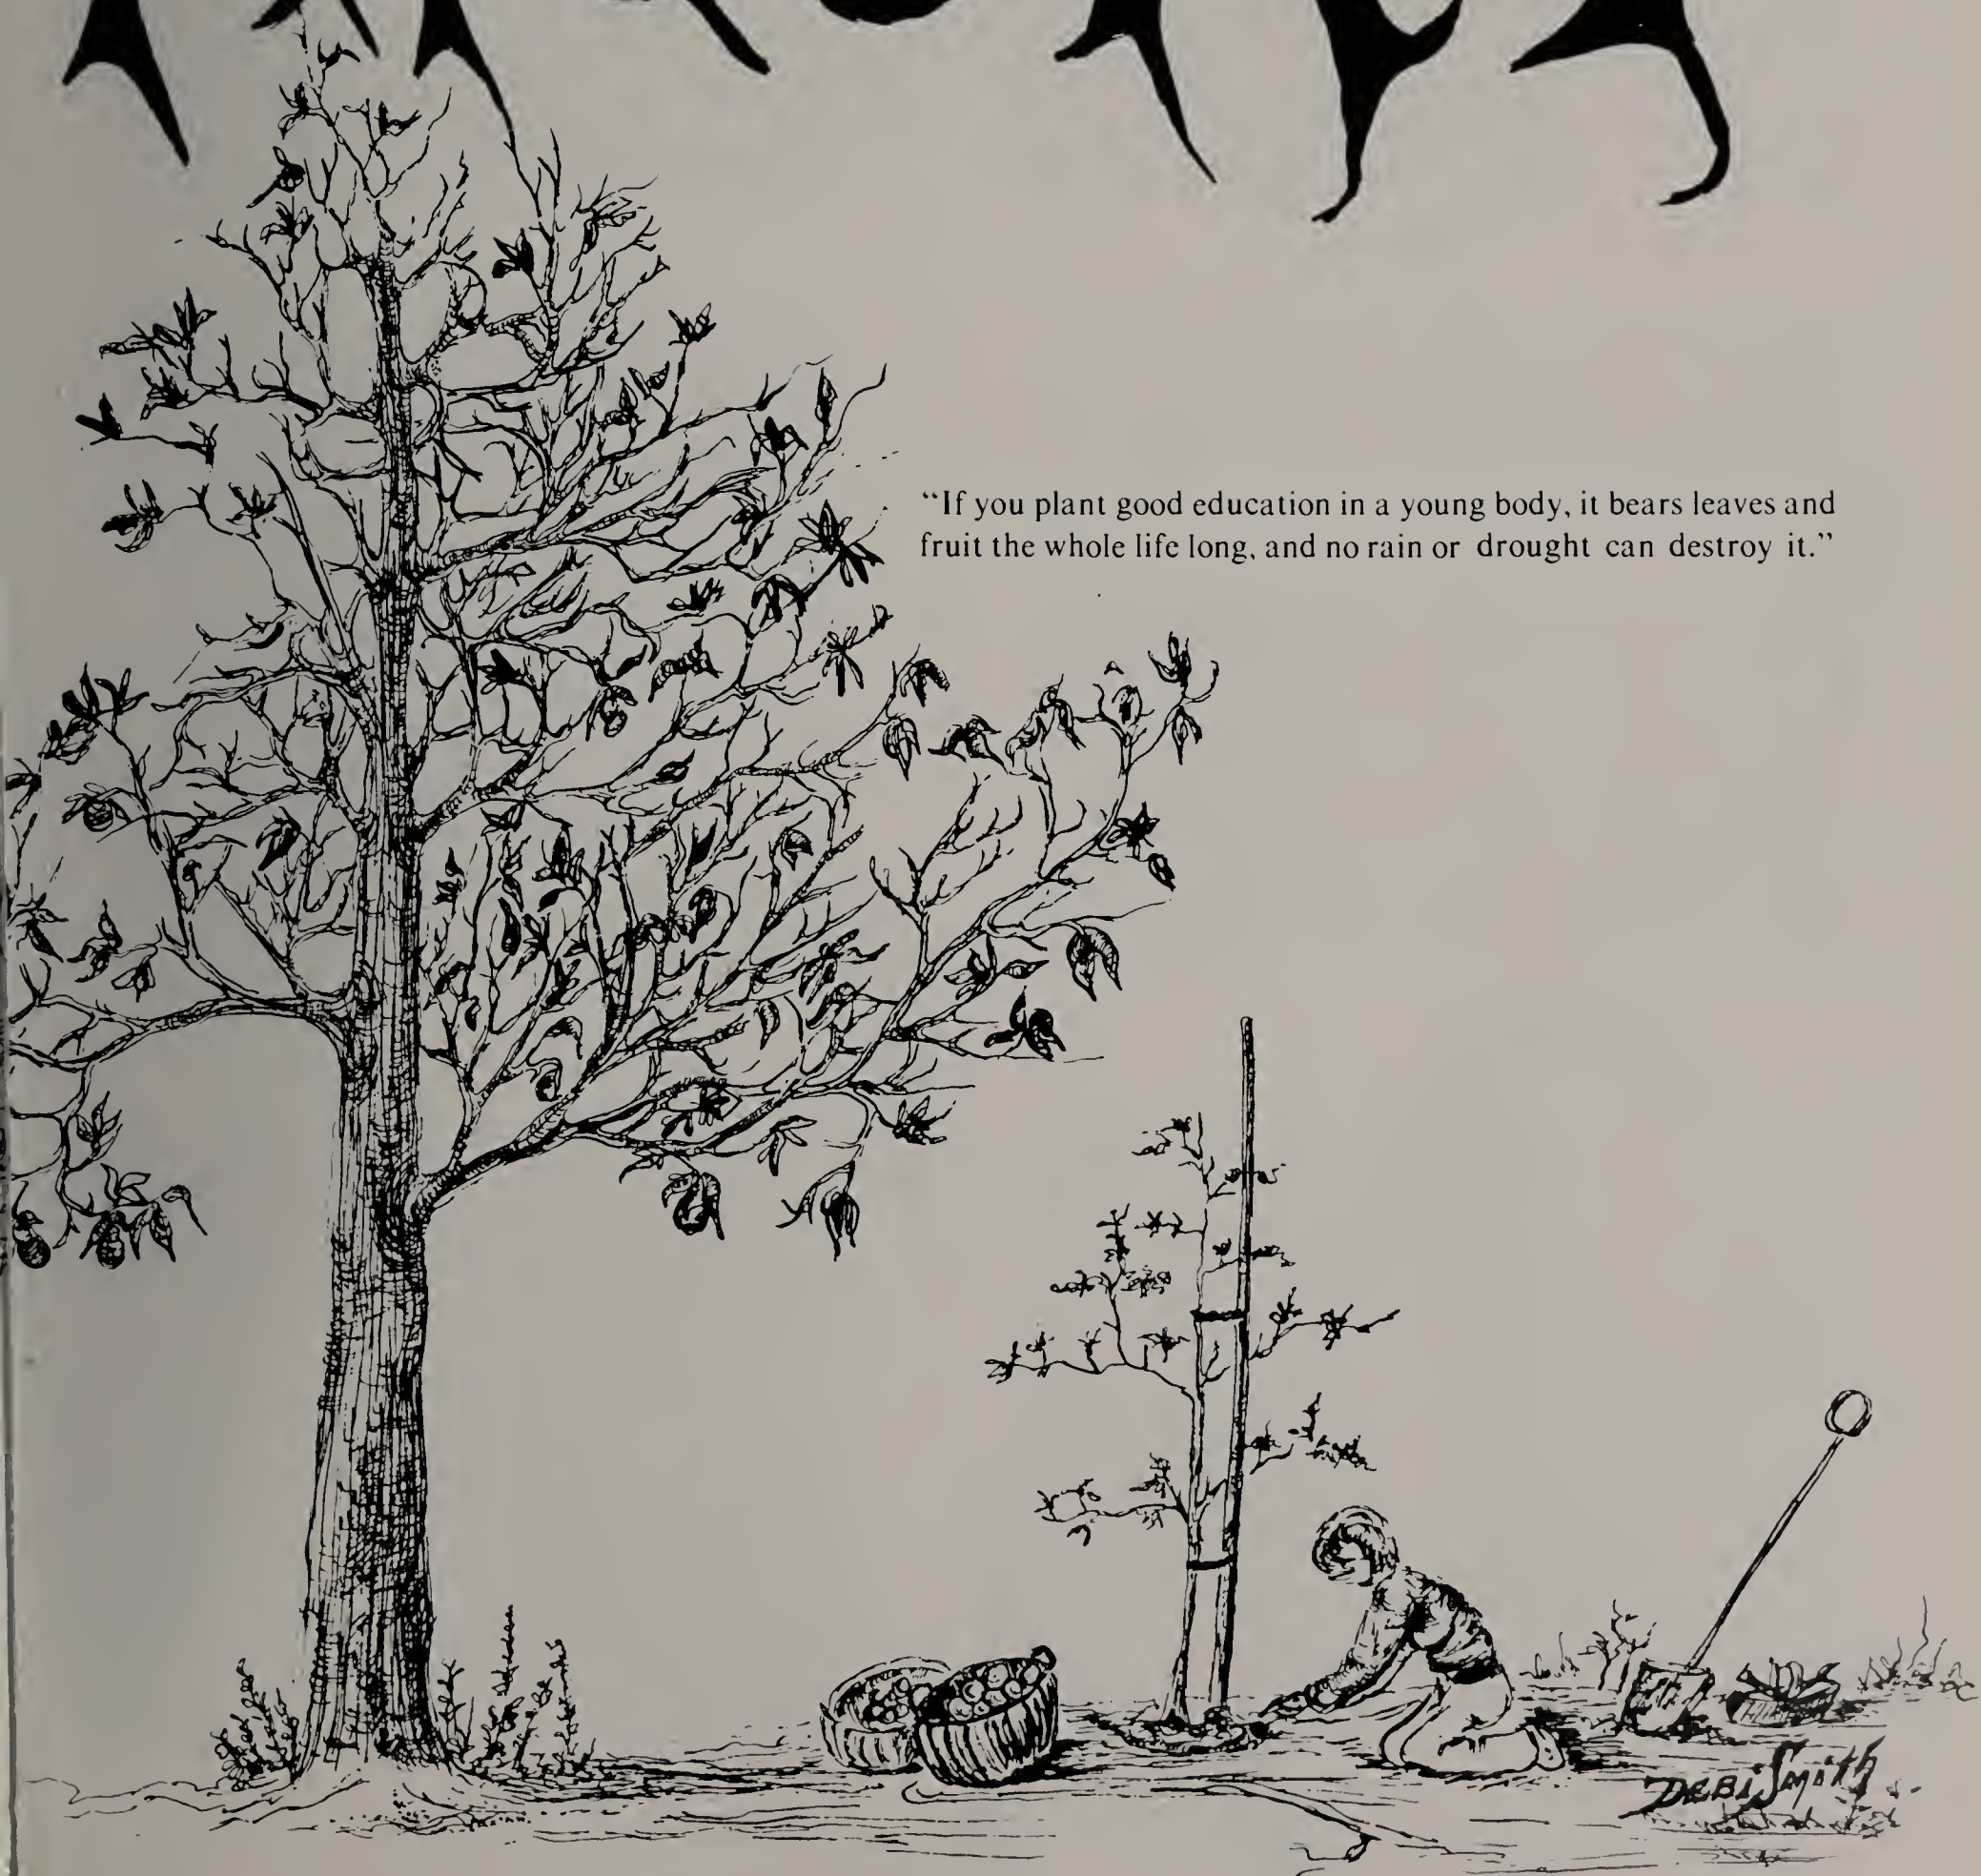

MRS. MARJORIE FILES

FACTOR

"If you plant good education in a young body, it bears leaves and fruit the whole life long, and no rain or drought can destroy it."

"The world is a looking glass and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face, frown at it, and it in turn will look sourly upon you; laugh at it and with it and it is a jolly, kind companion."

SENIORS

You've got to shake your fists at lightening now
You've got to roar like forest fire
You've got to spread your light like blazes
all across the sky.
They're going to aim
the hoses on you,
Show them you won't expire
Not 'til you burn up every passion, not even when you die.

—Joni Mitchell

THE CIRCLE GAME

Yesterday, A child came out to wonder
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star.

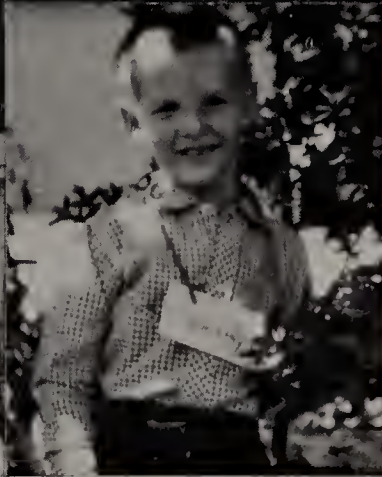

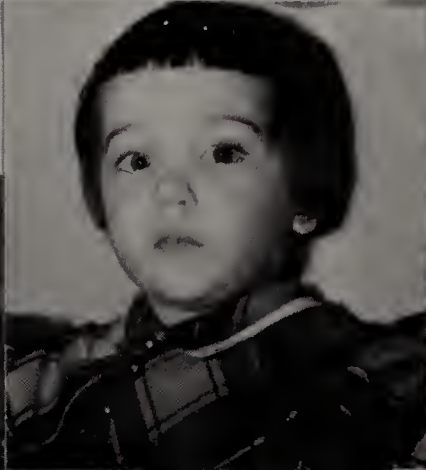

The seasons, they go round and round
The painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on a carousel of time
We can't return, we can only look Behind from where we came
And go round and round and round in the circle game.

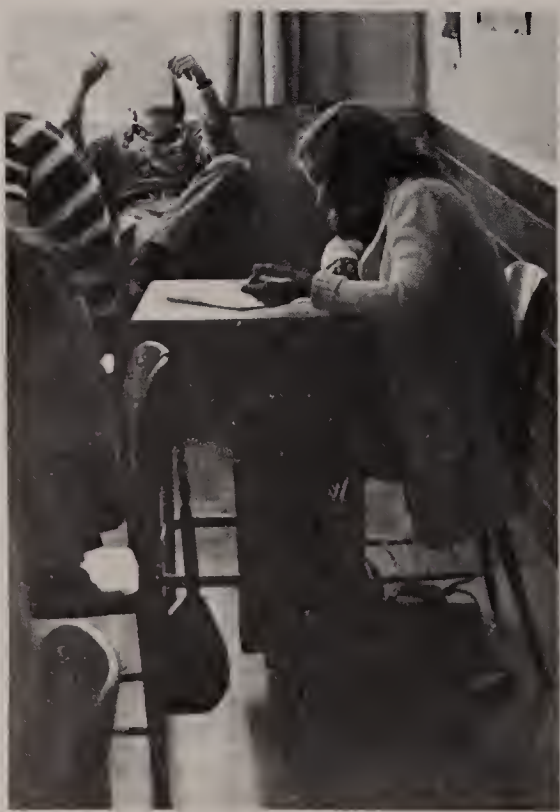

Then the child moved ten times round the seasons
Skated over ten clear frozen streams
Words like "When you're older" must appease him
And promises of "Someday" make his dreams.

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now
Cartwheels turn to carwheels through the town
They tell him "Take your time, it won't be long now
Til you drag your feet just to slow the circle down."

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true
They'll be new dreams and better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through.

Computer Club—The Computer Club exists to introduce students to the computer in an informal manner. Through much experience, club members are taught the fundamentals of operating the computer. Advisor: Mr. Cloutman.

Departmental Assistants —These students spend varying amounts of time assisting the departments in a variety of ways. They do some typing, collaborating and preparing materials, helping with cleaning duties and in maintaining animals and equipment.

Pep Squad—The main purpose of the squad is to promote and spread school spirit. Its members attend all sports events and sell banners, pins, bumper stickers, ribbons and other boosters at home games. Advisors: Miss Schissler and Miss Parys. Co-chairmen: Wanda Swietek and Patty O'Coin, Secretary: Karen Strandberg and Treasurer: Michelle LaLiberte.

Lab Assistants—These students devote at least one period per week, to help science teachers prepare laboratory equipment, making inventories, washing glassware and many other tasks essential to maintaining the smooth operations of the science department.

Main Office Assistants—Those students involved work in the main office every period, assisting with the many errands in servicing the entire staff of the school. They work with the administration and are trained by the secretaries. Advisor: Mrs. Virkler.

Attendance Office Assistants—Attendance Office Assistants aid in keeping the attendance records in order and run errands for the office. Advisor: Mrs. Hurley.

Guidance Office Assistants—These individuals perform various clerical tasks for the counselors—from delivering passes to working in the Career Resource Center.

Library Aides—The Library Aides are available every period to assist students in the use of the library materials and aid the Librarian and Assistant Librarian in the operation of the library. Librarian: Miss Thompson.

Nurse's Aide—The Nurse's Aide maintains the nurse's office by performing clerical duties and cleaning the office area. Nurse: Mrs. Files.

Chess Club—The club was formed and exists to offer students the opportunity to enjoy the game of chess and to improve their skills by playing frequently with a variety of people of different ability levels. Advisor: Mr. Cloutman; President: Bill Collins and Vice-President: Tim Morris.

Ecology Club—Members of this club are interested in man's environment. Activities include litter clean-up, speakers and discussions of pollution problems, attendance of conferences, field trips and a camping trip to Cape Cod National Seashore. Advisor: Mrs. Heard.

World Affairs Club—Those students involved participate in a model U.N. assembly, a trip to the U.N. and in various fund-raising projects. Advisor: Mr. Olsen.

Media Service—The Media Squad is a group of students operating, maintaining and repairing audio-visual equipment. The students work during their study halls (and receive one-quarter credit toward graduation). Advisor: Mr. Olsen.

Future Business Leaders—The purpose of the club is to develop the qualities of business and civic leadership. It is a service club for the school, involved in ticket sales of all sorts, candy sales at home basketball games, as well as acting as guides for parents on Open House night. A fund drive, sponsored by the club, helps to cover expenses for special field trips and leadership conferences all over the state of Connecticut. Advisor: Mr. Bordonaro; President: James Potyiza; Vice-President: Linda Campanelli; Secretary: Cammy Bilodeau and Treasurer: JoAnn Farinella.

Home Economics Club — The Home Economics Club's activities are designed to promote the school's program, to interest girls in the field and to serve the community. The club sponsors awards for graduation with money raised from an annual stationery sale. Other activities include a spring fashion show, convalescent home favors and the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award. Advisor: Mrs. Niederwerfer, President: Jeanne Donahue; Vice-President: Ruth Senger; Secretary-Treasurer: Kathy Crombie.

From each according to his ability, to each according to his work.

Student Council—The Student Council is composed of ten representatives from each class. The President, a senior, and the Vice-President, a junior, are elected by the student body the year preceding the term of office. The council serves as the government of the student body and acts as a vehicle of communication between them and the administration. Advisors: Mr. Woods and Mrs. Tucker. President: Jim Close; Vice-President: Peter Thrall; Recording Secretary: Joan Cope; Corresponding Secretary: Mary-Jo Fox; Treasurer: Jeff Huot; Publicity Director: Andy Schubert and Sergeant-at-Arms: Dave Joensuu.

DECA

The Distributive Education Clubs of America is a youth leadership training program for high school DE students on the local, state, and national levels. DECA provides an opportunity for group participation and career study essential to developing leadership qualities.

Deca members attend competitive conferences and do individual and group research studies. They take part in activities that provide services to school, community, and the nation. Advisor: Mr. Myette.

Doing easily what others find difficult is talent; doing what is impossible for talent is genius.

MATH TEAM

All students participating on the team have had one year of college algebra. They compete regularly in the Capitol Area Mathematics League, (consisting of twenty-six teams) and the ATPAC, and in a math league by mail, (consisting of twenty-two teams and six meets.) Advisor: Mr. Joy.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Wood Chapter of the National Honor Society is a service organization composed of a limited number of juniors and seniors. New members are selected each year on the basis of four attributes — Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character — and are inducted in the winter. Some of the group's projects have included a Mini Food Bank and supervising the Career Resource Center. Twelve faculty members serve as advisors. President: Bob Featherstone, Secretary — Treasurer: Ruth Senger.

Small service is true service.

1776

The South Winds

1976

South Winds — The South Winds's goal is to train students to recognize the requirements of good reporting, to develop honest, accurate and effective communications, and to introduce students to journalism as a potential career. About seven issues are produced a year. Advisor: Mr. Garro. Co-editors: David Lynch, Beth Delmastro and Ruth Senger. Feature editors: Kathy Brady and Sharon Hammick. Sports editors: John Rossley and Ruth Senger.

Reflections — Reflections is a literary magazine arranged by the students and printed by the Graphics department. Two issues are printed every year consisting of literary articles, ink drawings and black and white photographs. Most articles are contributed by the student body and chosen by the staff. Advisor: Mr. Cass. Editor: Sue Hopley. Art editors: Ellen Hyman and Joan Cope.

Dance Club — The dance club is a new club, formed for the first time this year. It is a group of students who get together and dance during activity periods. They're instructed in various jazz and modern dance movements. Advisor: Mrs. Lynn Lesbines.

Outing Club Board of Directors — The Outing Club is for the student who enjoys the outdoors. During the school year, the club sponsors many outdoor activities: skiing trips, (including the annual trip to Waterville Valley), skating parties and hiking trips. Advisor: Mr. Rioux.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service is a program of exchange students both to and from our country. There are two chapters of the service, the adult and student divisions. Throughout the year they work together to bring a student from a foreign country to live here for the school year, and to send a South Windsor student abroad for the summer. Some of the club's activities include the following: the annual spaghetti dinner, the AFS student's reception, an AFS weekend, various parties and fund-raising events. Advisor: Mr. Locario and Miss Littlefield. President: Pat McGuinness; Vice-President: Linda Regulbuto; Secretary: Abbie Sabia; Treasurer: Nola Carney; Publicity: Yvette Jackson and Exchange student to Sweden: Suzanne Doering.

Exchange student for 1975-76 Claudio Sottocornola, from Italy, with host Andy Schubert.

VOCAL ENSEMBLE

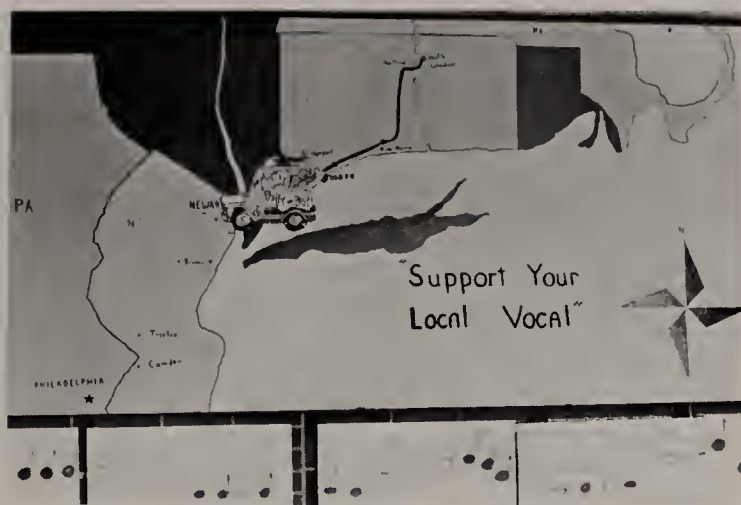

The Vocal Ensemble is a select group chosen by audition. Performances include a Christmas Concert, done jointly with the Band and Spring and Pops concerts done in the spring. The group also performs for other town schools and community organizations. Several members participate every year in the Greater Hartford Youth Chorale, Central Northwest Division Chorus and All State Chorus. In 1975 the group participated in the "Music Educators' National Convention" held in Philadelphia. Director: Mr. Lesbines.

Music is the universal language of mankind

VOCAL'S '75 PHILADELPHIA TRIP

CONCERT CHORUS AND TENTH GRADE CHORUS

The Choruses are composed of about 225 students. They perform in three major concerts throughout the year and participate in concerts for other town schools. Many of the selections consist of Traditional and Popular music. A variety of recordings are available every year. Director: Mr. Lesbines.

CONCERT BAND

Band — The Band serves a dual purpose as both a concert band and a marching band. It provides spirit and entertainment for the student body as well as for the town. Performances include appearances at all home football games, pep rallies, and June graduation exercises. They perform also in a Christmas concert and a Pops concert in the spring. An Exchange concert is done every year with another band in the New England area. Director: Mr. Lazzerini. Officers: Ruth Senger, Adrienne Lizotte, Barbara Reuss and Melanie Nachly.

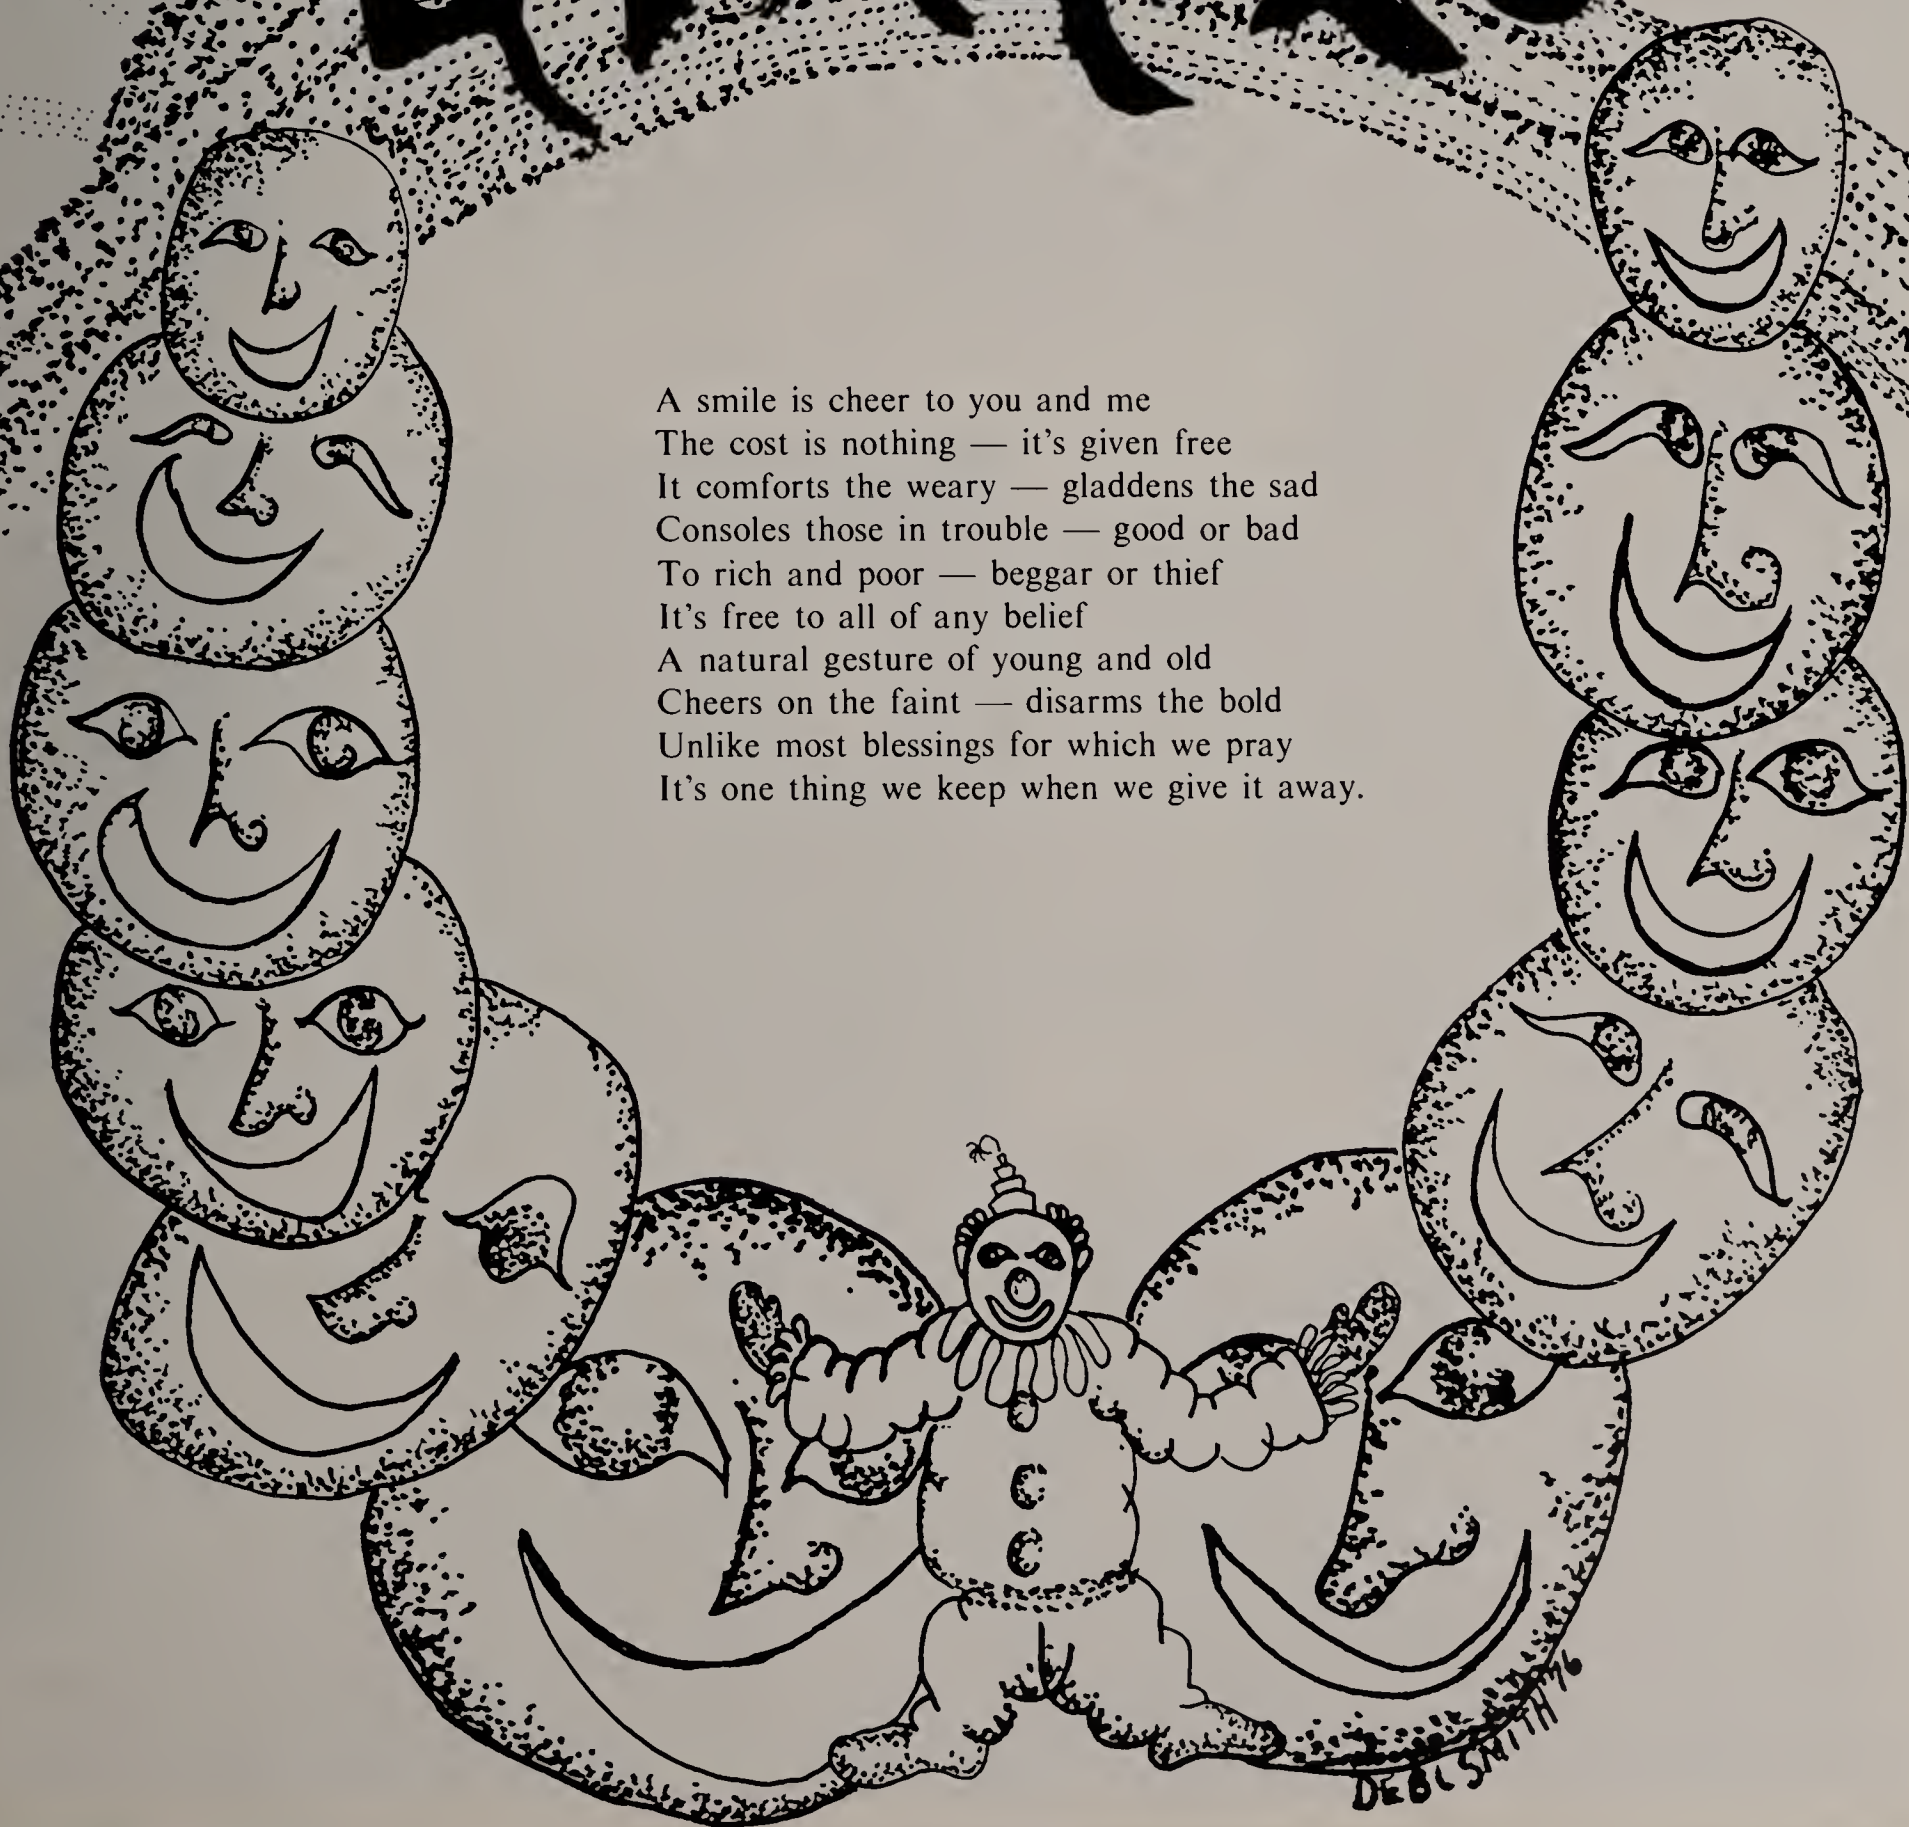

Great music is a physical storm.

SOCIAL EVENTS

A smile is cheer to you and me
The cost is nothing — it's given free
It comforts the weary — gladdens the sad
Consoles those in trouble — good or bad
To rich and poor — beggar or thief
It's free to all of any belief
A natural gesture of young and old
Cheers on the faint — disarms the bold
Unlike most blessings for which we pray
It's one thing we keep when we give it away.

The Bally-Hoo was held on Friday, October 3, 1975. This was an event sponsored by the cheerleaders to kick off the fall sports season.

BALLY-HOO

Just remember — when you think all is lost, the future remains.

— Bob Goddard

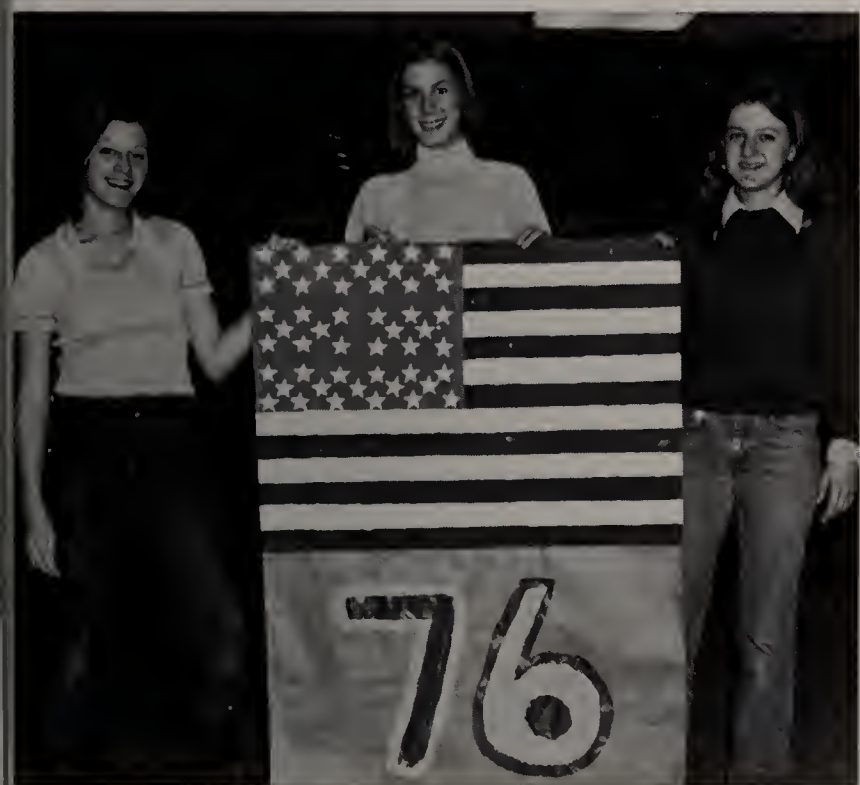

Pictured are queen, Sheryl Schmidt, and her escort, Kevin Minguy.

On Saturday, May 17, 1975, the Class of 1976 held its Junior Prom, "On a Night Like This." The dinner-dance was held at the Red Coach Restaurant and music was provided by the Jarvis Generation. Sheryl Schmidt was the queen, and her court consisted of Becky Mann, Sue DeRosa, Nancy Brown, Lori Barrett, Paula Callahan, and Sandy Bisson.

PEP RALLY

On December 12 the annual Pep Rally was held to begin the Winter Sports season. Supremely, the Mighty Seniors won the poster and spirit links contests. However, the Jolly Juniors showed their spirit by winning the shouting contest.

I feel in every smile a chain.
John Wolcot

Say the Senior class is ready to fight!
The Senior class is out of sight!
The Senior class's gonna win tonight!
'Cause the Senior class is dynamite!

"And cheer as the winners go by!"

The Class of 1976

Make way for us; here we come,
We're the future, America's young.
Don't mock or criticize our youth,
Because like you, we search only for the truth.
Hypocrisy won't get us down,
We will strike where those abound.

There's much to do; we're needed here
To help preserve what men hold dear.
We'll work with others hand in hand
To try to help our fellow man.

You see, in this world that our fathers made
We all stand together, unafraid.
Now give us room, let us by,
Because the youth of America have arrived.
And there is nothing in this world
That we cannot fix,
Because we're the class of '76.

Ana Alzugaray

Nostalgia is recalling the fun without reliving the pain.

The AFS Reception was held on October 19, 1975, in the South Windsor High School library. Suzanne Doering, our summer exchange student to Sweden, spoke about her experiences and shared the sights with the audience through the use of slides. Claudio Sottocornola from Italy was also welcomed at this time.

SPORTS

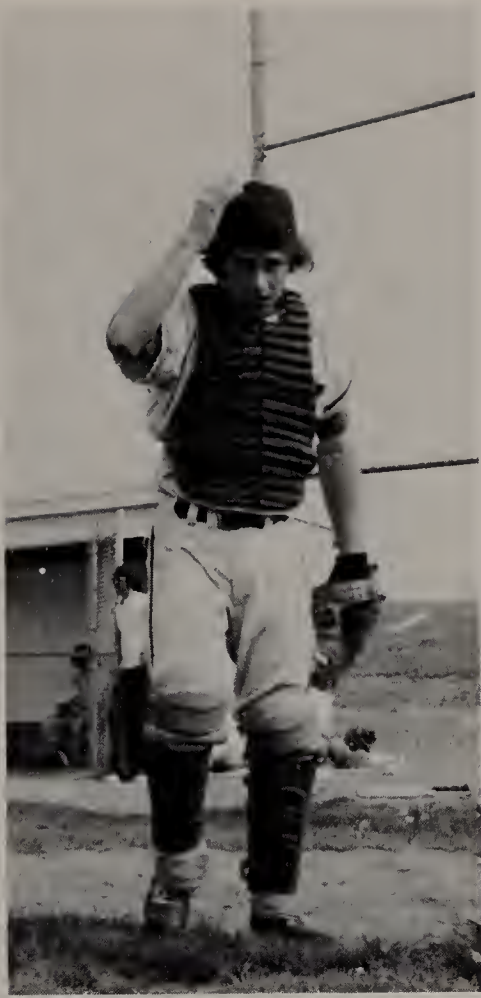

In all time of distress,
And in our triumph too,
The game is more than the player of the game,
And the ship is more than the crew!

It always seems that we fail to give the most important people in our lives
the recognition they deserve.
I guess it's because we feel it so greatly that we think they must feel it too.

Anyway, what I'm trying to say is thank you.
There's nothing else to say.
You know most of it already,
except maybe
God give you peace.
Amen.

We would like to thank everyone who assisted in the production of our yearbook.

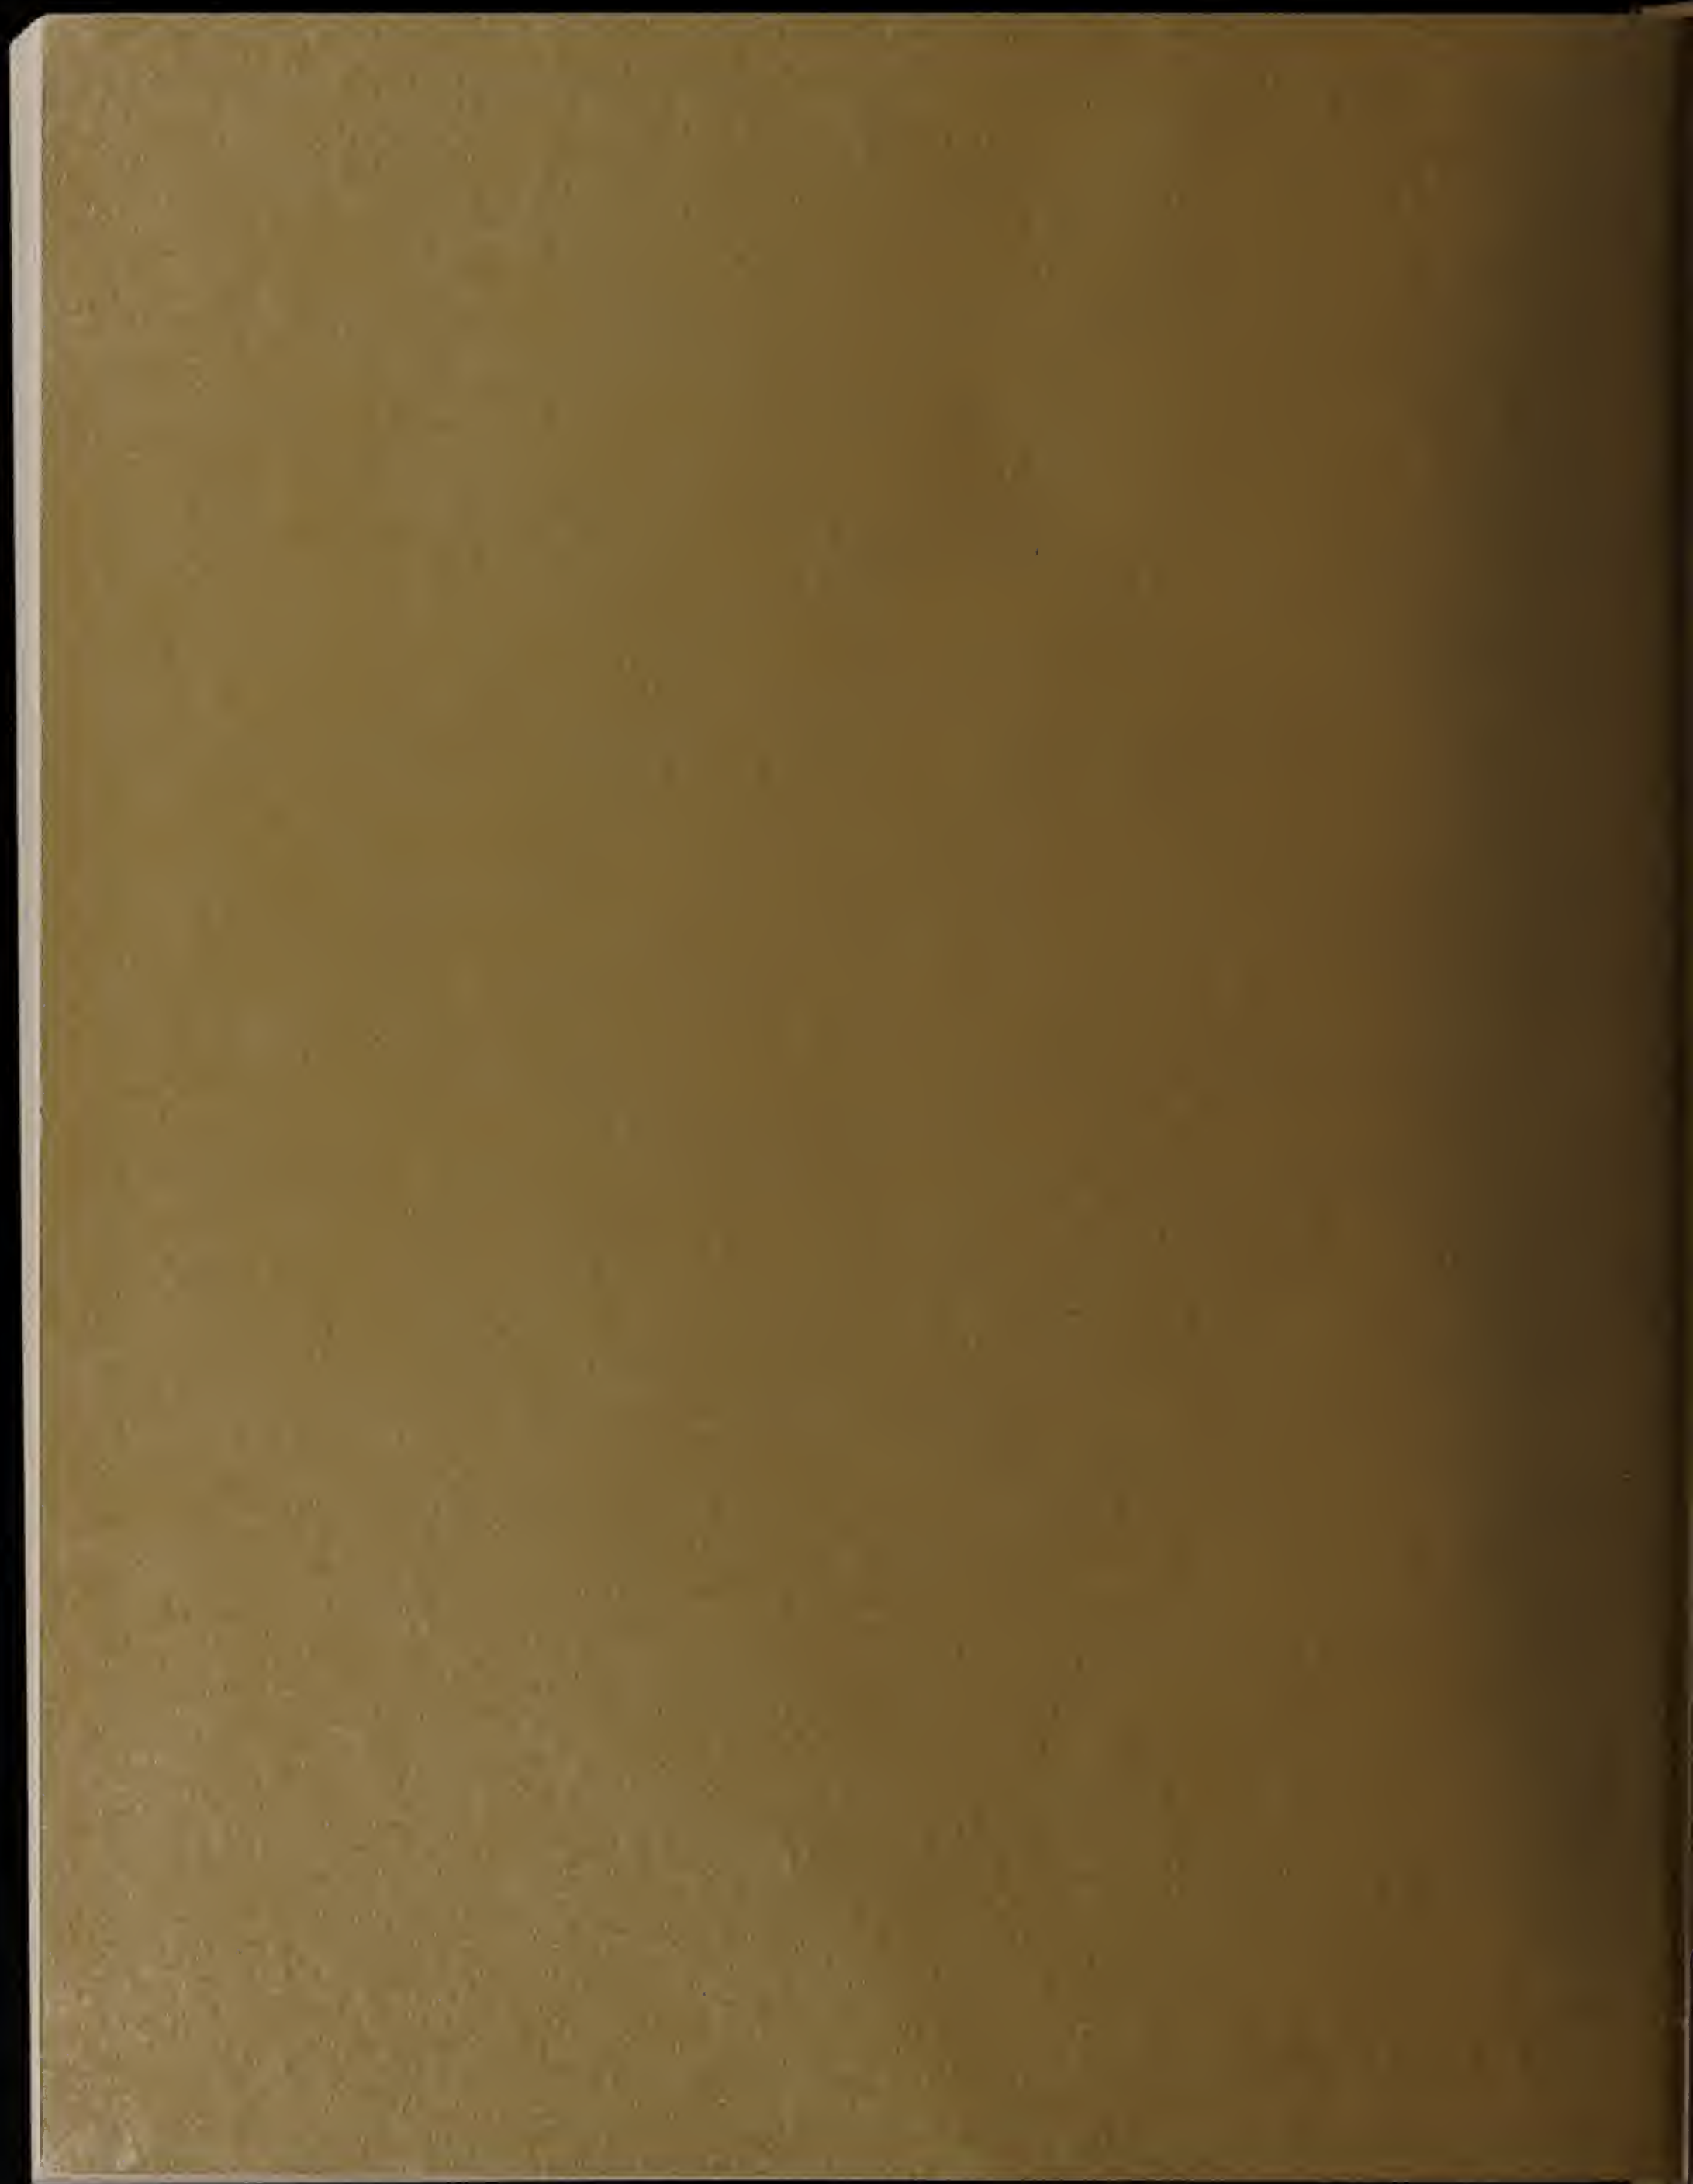

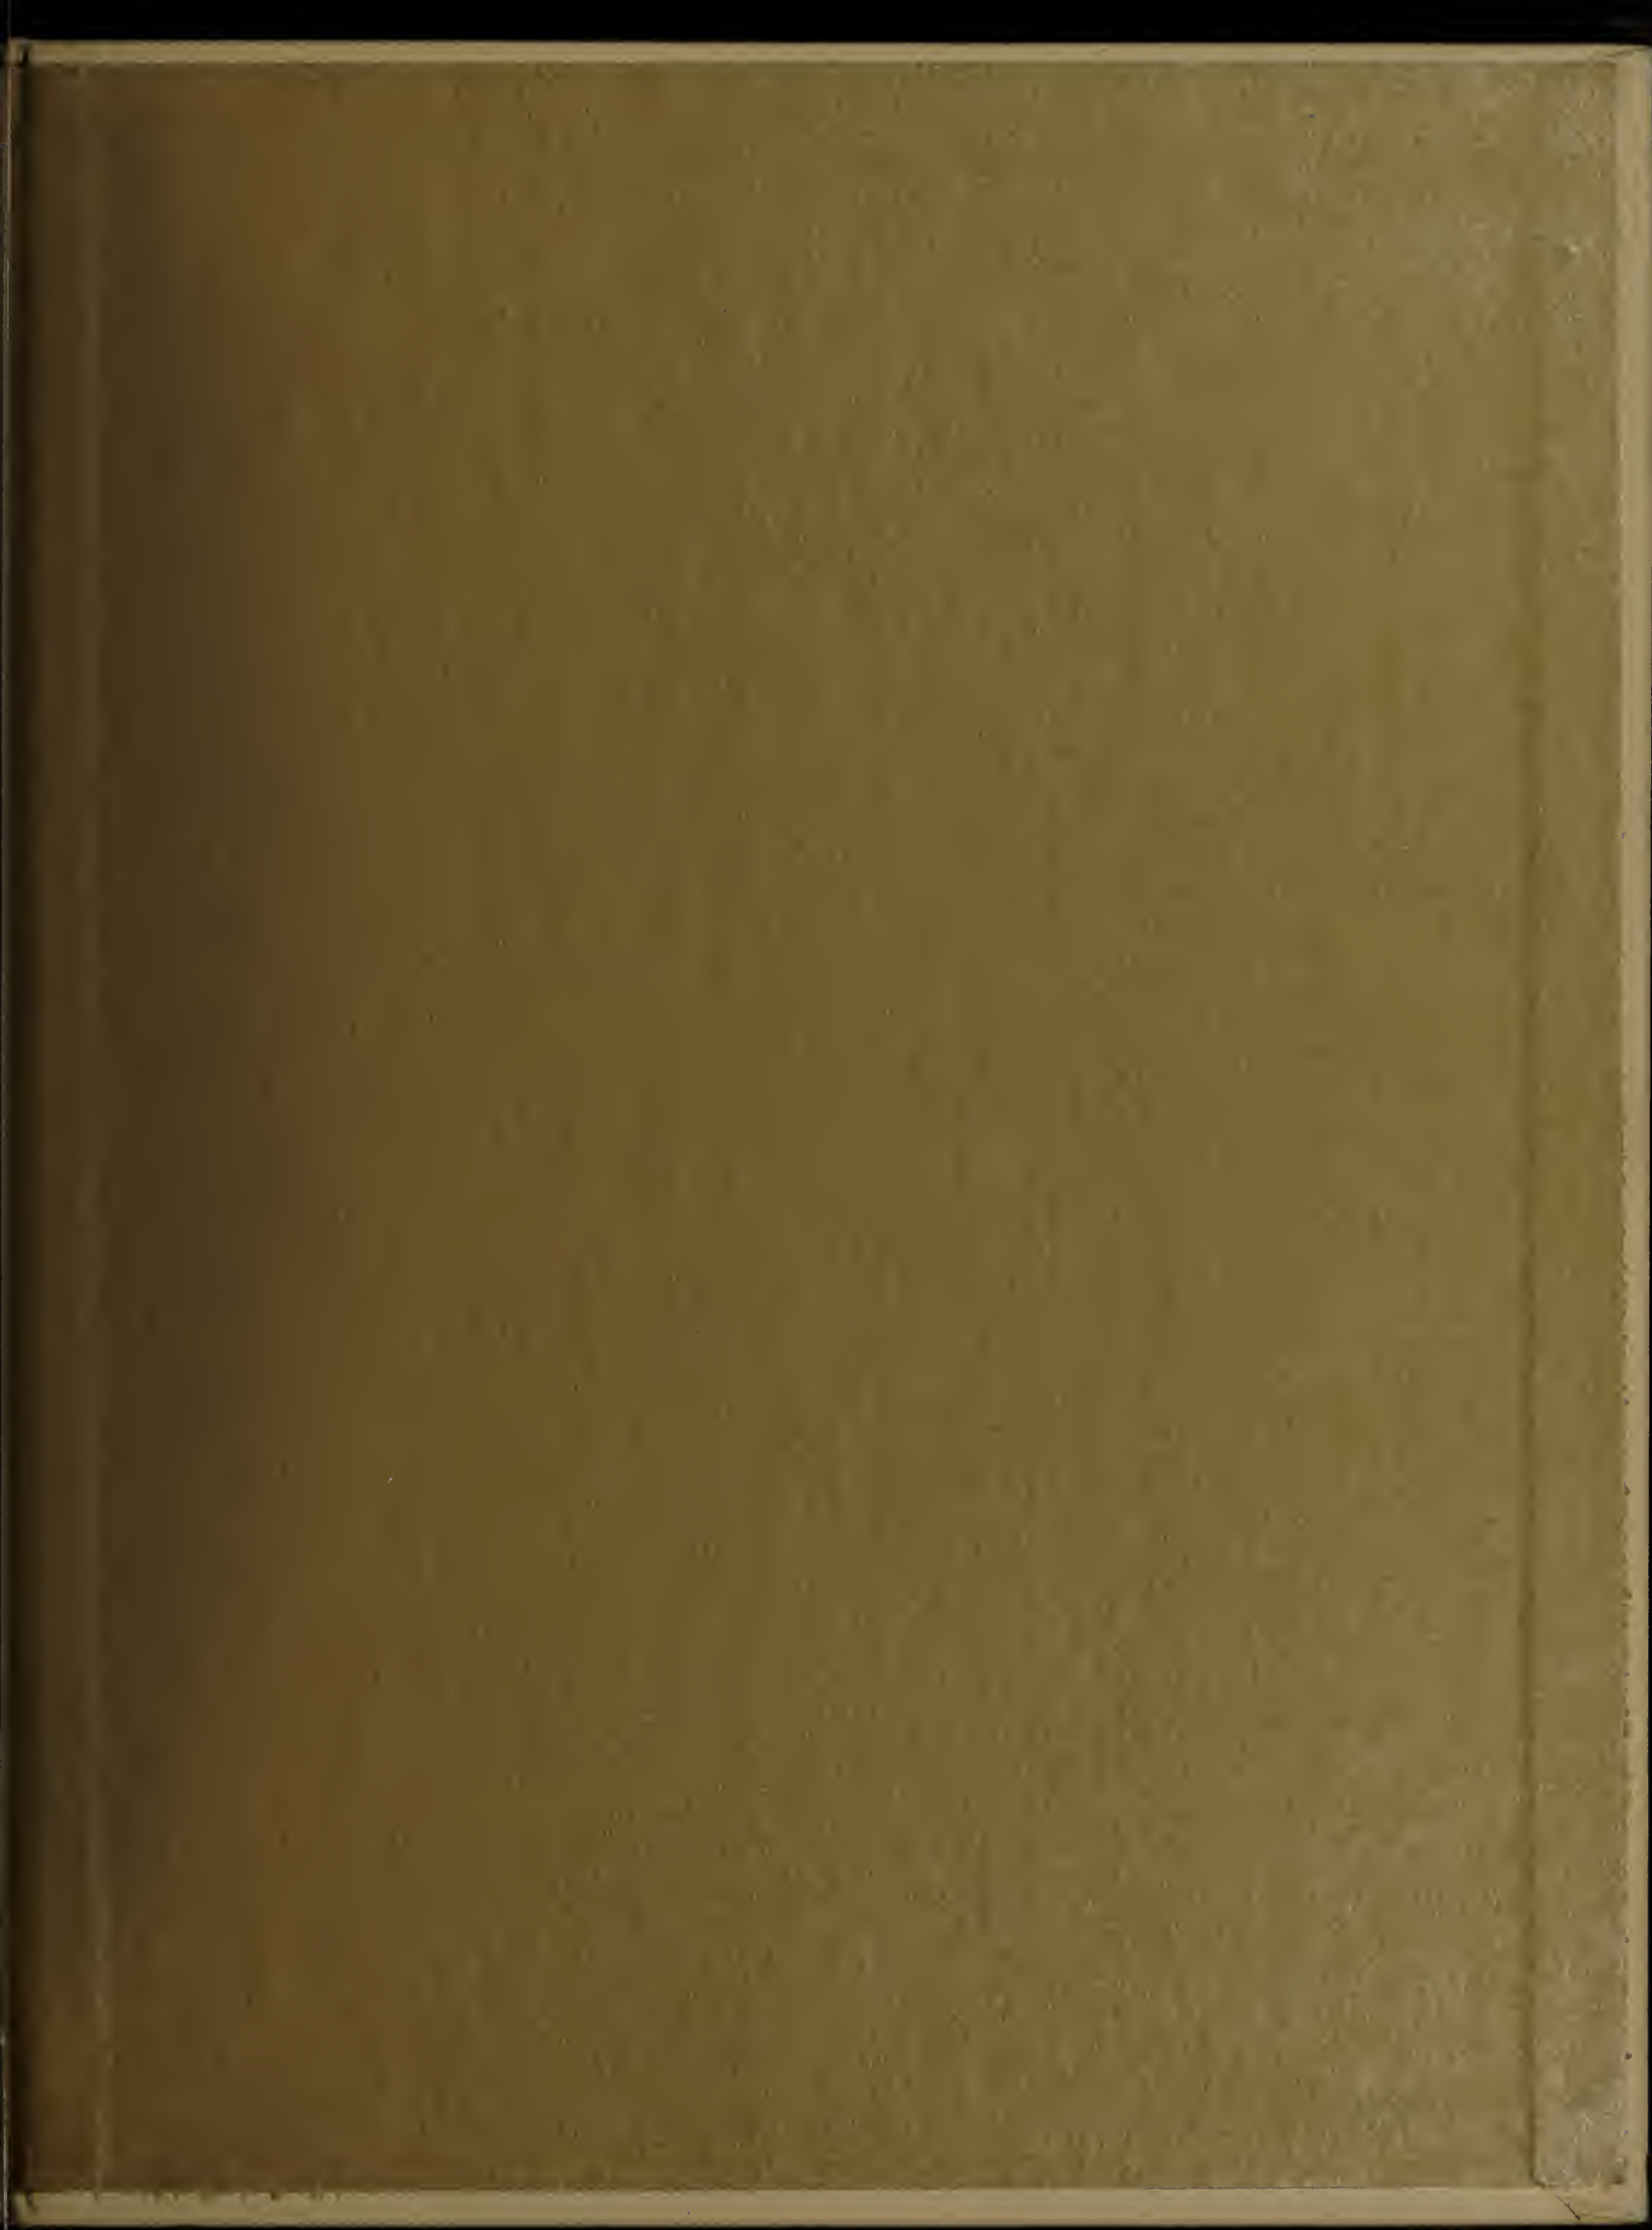

The bells no longer beckon,
the long corridors of memories hum with silence. We are the children born from these, and shall remain so in remembering what we have left behind — smiles that caught us running, eyes that watched us learning, minds that taught us dreams, and frowns that watched our frustrations.
Empty rooms catch the dust of our shoes, reminding us our souls have been shaken — there is no need to tell us the day will not stand the same anymore.
We may catch up with time for one long moment and study what has been, only to turn and find tomorrow unleashing itself upon us at its mercy, while today has passed by without a trace.

Suzanne Doering
